Description

* FREE DELIVERY TO MOST OF THE U.K. * Victorian Cabinet - Ash - c1900 Charming compact late Victorian cabinet in Ash with carved door. The cabinet is well presented and offers a variety of uses. The choice of Ash hardwood timber for the piece means that the cabinet enjoys light tones to the timber. This example benefits from a lovely hand carving to the front of the door. The hinged field panel door to the cabinet opens to reveal a main compartment with an internal shelf. When open there is a charming clover-leaf detail displayed on the back panel. Below the door the piece rides upon a continuous plinth. The cabinet will function as a bedside cabinet, vanity stand, pot-cupboard, music & magazine storage - the possibilities are many. Overall a super piece of furniture which looks attractive and functions nicely. The piece is clean and presented in good antique condition.
