SoldItem Reference: SA139829*Date of manufacture: Georgian

Description

Stunning large silver snuff box dating to George 1V era. The exterior has a long ribbed effect with a decorative border to the lid edge. The interior is gilt lined for protection. The lid closes tight and the hinge is excellent. Overall condition is very good although there is a little wear to the internal gilt. The box is free from any monograms or engraving and is a good guage of silver. Hallmarks to the base and lid are worn, though the Georgian head is clear and the date letter is m most probably for London 1827. Very collectable piece.
