Description

Fully and professionally restored. This is a wonderful opportunity to own a genuine Victorian solid oak sideboard or dresser dated to around 1890. Constructed of first class quarter sawn oak which has matured over the decades into a warm rich colour with fabulous grain and patina. It has been professionally yet sympathetically restored. The mirror back is in three sections with the two side mirrors being hinged so you can place them at an angle, all are bevelled edged and the central mirror has just been replaced so is in perfect condition. It has carving and moldings to the shaped top cornice. The marble top has hints of greys and greens with the striking white veining, it is in incredible condition with no cracks or chips. The base section has the most wonderful garland carving with the decorative solid brass handles which is very much of the French Art Nouveau period and it comes with working locks and keys. This is an extremely versatile piece as the mirror back can be removed and of course can be placed in any room in the house, in the hallway, kitchen, bedroom or sitting room. It measures 45.5" wide, 21" deep, 74" high with the mirror and 34" high to the ...
