Description

Professionally restored and reupholstered. This is a wonderful opportunity to acquire a genuine Victorian Arts and Crafts day bed or chaise longue dating from around 1890. Constructed of a solid mahogany frame with wonderful small turned mahogany legs ending in brass castors. It has just been professionally reupholstered using traditional horsehair, capoc and springs and then covered in a William Morris heavy silk fabric with delicate floral motifs in greens, oranges and reds against a champagne coloured background. It has no rips or tears and is spotlessly clean. It has five positions to enable you to lie on it with comfort. The colour of the fabric compliments the patina and rich colour of the mahogany beautifully and of course would fit in with any colour scheme. The bed is firm and stable with no loose joints. A genuine Victorian Arts and Crafts solid mahogany bed and because of the design, size and proportions very desirable. If you would like sample of the fabric please email us and we will be happy to oblige. A classic and elegant piece of English furniture which would grace any period or country home and extremely versatile as it can be placed in any room,...
