Description

* FREE DELIVERY TO MOST OF THE U.K. * Gorgeous Sutherland Table - Burr Walnut - c1870 This Serpentine top Victorian Sutherland table is a splendid example. These tables are as functional as they are attractive. When both leaves are down the table assumes almost no space and can easily be slid away rolling into a space in a cupboard or by the side of a sofa on the attractive original brass castors. Either one or two flaps can be engaged and are supported solidly with a flying leg which swings from under. With burr walnut veneer and a shaped serpentine top this table presents beautifully with super depth of colour. Carved cabriole legs support a triple turned riser. The twin supports are united by a very pleasing stretcher making the whole stable and robust. Overall the delicate look is well balanced producing a fine small table. It is presented in stunning condition. The table is everything that is expected of this type and will make a beautiful addition to any home.
