Description

A fine early print depicting Queen Charlotte, set in a beautiful paster and gilt frame with bow on top. The detail and realism is excellent, as the print looks very much like a pastel, being placed under glass. There is a framers label on the verso which dates the item around 1930 and confirms the print is were produced after the old master originals, as seen in the Victoria & Albert Museums in London. Condition is very good, with some overpainting of the gold finish on the frame.
