Description

 FREE DELIVERY TO MOST OF THE U.K.  Georgian Oak Chest of Drawers - Two Piece - c1760 An unusual and interesting large Georgian chest of drawers in fine mahogany. The piece is excellently constructed and in great condition. A split design allows the chest to be located into properties with access issues and originally would have made the piece easy to move from one location to another at a time way before the invention of motor vehicles. Riding upon lovely bracket feet the chest rises with three full width lower drawers and a twin pair to the upper. Signs of the quality of the chest are evident in the magnificent top surface which shows fantastic age to the mahogany grain and superb patina. Overall a very desirable Georgian chest in fine order that catches the eye and will perform as a hugely practical item of furniture. Classic style and great proportions, combined with excellent condition, make this a fine example.
