Description

An absolute gem and about as refined as elegant as period boxes get. This small table top box is probably Dutch and could of perhaps been something like a spoon box. Dating to the Georgian period, the box has a highly decorative serpentine shaped lid, covered in the most exquisite flamed Mahogany, the box being trimmed with Boxwood all the way around, and standing on four small brass ball feet. The interior of the lid retains an original mirrored lining, the box having been re-lined in an elegant hand-marbelled paper creating a clean finish ready for use. Superb condition and complete with a working taselled key. 7 1/2" x 6" x 2 1/4" tall. Item ID: 33812 FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail Directly From London, England
