Description

A quality oil on canvas of " WARWICK CASTLE " in Warwickshire, painted superbly by reknown listed artist John Anderson born in 1835 -1919, whose well liked works are in many museums today. THE NAME OF THE ARTIST & HIS SIGNATURE ARE SEEN ON VERSO INSCRIBED ON STRETCHER. A detailed and accurate artists impression of the very well known landmark, and painted interestingly with two country gents fishing just off the river bank. Measurements Including Frame Height: 25 Inches Width: 34 Inches The frame is all original and specially made for the artists painting, having the title painted onto the front lower frame in black. The condition of the painting is very good, with no damage or repairs ever having occurred. A chance to acquire a sought after painting, rarely seen for sale these days. ABOUT THE ARTIST: John Anderson was born in Annan, Dumfriesshire. He went through the Art School system, receiving his final training at the Department of Science and Art, South Kensington, where he trained as an art master. He was appointed Head of the Art School when it opened in its new buildings in 1863. From then until 1906 he was Head Teacher there. He was a good teacher, such is made ...
