Description

A fabulous thing, this is late Victorian or Edwardian Honey Jar, made from molded glass, acid etched in the form of a beehive. The glass sits in a naturalistic frame with handles either side, the frame is unmarked. The lid is clearly custom made and only fits precisely a certain way. The top is an absolute joy with a finial of a Bee sitting on top of a flower. Superb condition, the stand measures 6" handle to handle x 4 1/4" x 4 1/4" tall.
