Description

An Arts & Crafts period oak wallclock by the World renowned maker, Gustav Becker. The medium oak case is nicely polished with a convex glass to the dial and a bevelled glass to the lower half of the door through which the brass pendulum can be seen swinging. There are small, round glass apertures to the sides. The 8 day movement strikes on the half-hour and the hour. It stikes with four hammers on four rods, giving a very clear strike with a beautiful tone. The clock has just been fully serviced by our BHI registered staff.
