Description

Dating from around 1890 this beautiful arch topped mantle clock was made by top French maker Japy Freres. The enamelled dial is in pristine condition with no chips, cracks or crazing. It has black Roman numerals and very finely cut hands. It is surrounded by a brass bezel with thick, bevelled glass. The highly polished light mahogany case has box stinging inlay with an attractive cartouche to the front. It has brass carrying handles to the sides and stands on brass bun feet. The 8 day movement strikes on the half-hour and the hour and has just been fully serviced by our BHI registered staff. Measurements: (Max)
