SoldItem Reference: SA150471*Date of manufacture: 1890

Description

A really unusual large desk-top magnifying glass with the original magnifier measuring 4". The frame to the glass is silver on brass with some wear commensurate with age, and the fluted handle is silverplated. Obviously what makes this a highly sought after item is the figural terminal in the form of an Owl's head. This head is beautifully cast in English sterling silver with a hallmark for London 1897 and maker's initials J.K. The owl retains its two large original glass eyes, still in superb condition. A real gem in excellent condition, measuring 12 1/2" in length. Item ID: 33927 FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail Directly From London, England
