

SA150540

Regency bracket mantel clock Tupman London

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA150540*Date of manufacture: 1800

Description

A fine quality London Regency period bracket/mantel clock. Choice flame mahogany veneers to the case with brass inlays. Chamfered brass case sides. Fishscale side sound fretwork and handles. Brass bun feet. A convex glass and cast brass bezel to the dial with finely pierced blued steel hands. A twin fusee mechanism of 8-day duration with engraved border backplate. Hourly bell striking with pull repeat side cord. George Tupman of London is recorded as working from 1794-1828. Height 16 1/2 " / 42cms Depth 6 1/2 " / 17cms Width 11 " / 28 cms.

Seller Details

Kembery Antique Clocks Ltd

Bristol United Kingdom

Tel: 0117 956 5281

International Tel: +44 117 956 5281

