Description

A wonderful large vanity jar in pretty etched glass with a sterling silver lid. Not only is it a good size, but so is the exquisite decoration and excellent condition. The jar itself beautifully engraved ... pretty as a picture with foliate garlands all round tied with ribbon and bows and hanging baskets of flowers; these just don't come along very often. The lid is sterling silver hallmarked for Birmingham 1910 together with the makers initials. The lid is set with a large piece of glossy tortoiseshell, with highly decorative silver pique inlay. This is a really usable example in superb condition 3 1/4" tall with the lid having a diameter measuring 3 1/8". Item ID: 33939 FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail Directly From London, England
