Description

A lovely pair of hallmarked silver serving spoons in Old English pattern, from the early years of George III's reign. The superb examples have script initial to the top front and are bottom marked (hallmarks above the bowls on reverse). Condition :- Very good, with no dents or repairs. There is a very minor split on the edge of one bowl (picture 5) commensurate with age and use. Hallmarks :- Softening but readable. Maker's mark not quite clear enough to distinguish. Length :- 21 cms.
