Description

A handsome Victorian pocket watch holder, cast in solid brass and the front beautifully polished showcasing the floral and scroll decoration. The pocket watch would sit in the pocket at the back and act as a mantle, desk or bedside clock; you will see a tiny hole within this pocket, not damage as it is thick cast brass, simply a tiny original flaw created during manufacturing. The stand measures 5" wide at the base x 7" tall. Excellent condition. Item ID: 33900A FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail Directly From London, England
