Description

A delightful set of six silver teaspoons from the sought after Newcastle Assay Office. These good examples are bright cut, with script initials in the cartouche. Flatware is scarce nowadays due to the great losses, caused by the unscrupulous melting of antique silver for scrap. Therefore a complete set, from a desirable Assay Office is a rare find. Condition :- Excellent, with no dents or splits. One spoon has two tiny dimples and the bowl tips to all are very good. Hallmarks :- Clear, readable and matching. Maker :- Thomas Sewell. Length :- 12.5 cms.
