Description

Three Branch Ornate Gilt Metal Candelabra - Italian - c1850 A three branch gilt metal candelabra presented in attractive antique condition. The piece displays huge style and at 54cm (21.3") makes a classic statement when in place, impressive but not imposing. A solid metal painted baluster central body provides good weight and stability. Twin ornate side handles sweep upwards to meet the pouring design mouth. The three branch locates on a taper fit and can be lifted out so that the candelabra can be used with just a single candle for more intimate dining. Overall a gorgeous addition to any table setting.
