Description

~~ Superb condition throughout ~~ This is a beautiful example of a Victorian mantel clock. The case is just incredible made of Amboyna which is the rarest and most sought after of woods, the grain is just stunning complimented by the stringing around the front of the case and its original silver dial which is in perfect condition, a contrasting brass bezel and the small brass inserts with decorative brass handles. The platform escapement movement is an outstanding piece of engineering and was obviously made by a highly accomplished maker, the dial is marked Arthur Conyers of Ipswich. The movement has just undergone a full service so you can be assured that this clock is in tip top condition and will give trouble free service for many years to come. This is a small elegant beautifully made mantel clock in exceptional condition, the quality is truly outstanding and probably one of the best clocks we have ever seen. It is keeping accurate time to within 1 minute a week. Overall this is an outstanding clock and will give pleasure for years to come and because of its design and proportions very desirable.. The clock movement comes with a full 12 month warranty. Dime...
