Description

Oriental Brass Table - Twin Tiers - c1930 This Art Deco period brass tray table is presented in very good antique order. Pleasingly solid brass trays are supported by a folding base to produce a two tier table. The piece is suitable both for permanent location or as an occasional table. When in the folded position that table assumes very little space and can be slid under a sofa or such; in addition the gorgeous solid trays may be used on their own for serving and display purposes. The base is a six leg folding design with dragons head carvings to the upper. The trays display wonderful scenes with floral and foliate detailing to the perimeter and a central engraving featuring oriental characters in traditional dress. Overall this piece of furniture is in good condition and will make a great addition to any setting.
