Description

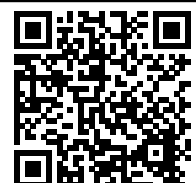

Victorian Art Nouveau Silver Tray - Gorgeous Design - c1900 A fine and interesting Victorian Serving Tray presented in charming antique condition. Art Nouveau styling is superb with exquisite cast detailing to the perimeter, foliate engraving across the centre, serpentine edge to the inner and glamorous handles. The piece sits upon small low feet so that when put on a delicate surface the main body of the tray remains clear. The silver plate has been worn through polishing delivering stunning colour where the copper base is revealed. The tray is in excellent antique condition. The large size allows for cups, plates, milk jug, sugar, tea pot and cakes to all be delivered to the table effortlessly. This silver plated example makes the perfect serving tray for any occasion, or a lovely display item. Overall a very collectable piece and a desirable size.
