Description

This quality faded mahogany serpentine two-drawer side table has an elegant S shaped top above two cockbeaded shaped drawers which are decoratively designed with an inset mould. The drawers are fully oak lined with brass locks, escushions and original round drop handles. The side table is raised on fluted tapering legs terminating on spade feet and has a beautiful faded mahogany glow making it an extremely attractive and versatile piece of furniture. The table has been carefully restored by using a traditional French polish method and will happily grace any home.
