Description

A delightfully pretty jewellery box, perfect too for a desk-top, is made from exotic (and expensive) Rosewood and dating to around 1860. The top is inlaid with exceptionally pretty Mother of Pearl flowers and leaves, each engraved and inked to create a really life-like decoration; all strung together with stems created from fine pewter stringing. All of the edges have diamond shaped Mother of pearl inlay and the front has a Mother of Pearl escutcheon and rectangular cartouche above. The interior has been relined in an attractive hand-marbled paper, creating a clean and fresh finish ready for use. The key is original but the lock not quite working, it is not catching when the pin moves across. Nevertheless creates a most attractive finished look with the Burgundy coloured tassel. Excellent condition, measuring 9 1/4" x 6 1/2" x 3 1/4" tall. Item ID: 34021 FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail Directly From London, England
