Description

A quite fabulous and highly ornate four piece tea set, including the spirit kettle on stand, with floral and foliate repousse panels with hand chasing. On either side of each piece are large cartouche, one side of each piece with a regal Armorial Crest with the banner engraved the family mottoe "In Deo Spes" - In God is my hope. The Silver Plated set consists of the spirit kettle with stand and burner, teapot, large sugar and creamer, all standing on beautifully cast stands. What makes this one particularly special is the bird finials on the kettle and teapot and the figural bird spouts on these two pieces. The underside of each piece is fully marked by the top-notch silversmith, Martin Hall & Co. and dates to the late Victorian era, around 1885. The best set I have had in a long, long time and never have the matching spirit kettle, so a lovely find and by such a fabulous maker. Excellent condition, the spirit kettle measuring 14" tall, the tea pot measuring 7 3/4" tall. Item ID: 33864 FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail Directly From London, England
