Description

Brass Table - Oak Base - c1900 This brass table is presented in excellent antique order. The table top is a deep-sided example over a wooden inner frame and therefore has a feeling of solidity and robustness. This rides over an Oak base with interesting tri-form styling. The table measures 51cm (20.1") across and will make a splendid lamp, side, or occasional table. The base of the table at the bottom is joined by a tri-form stretcher which offers opportunity to be used as a pot or plant stand. The berber brass top features gorgeous engraved design work displaying great intricacy. The deep side allows for further detailing around the edge of the piece. The Oak base structure benefits from simple turning and produces a very robust piece. Overall this piece of furniture is in good antique condition. The table is well constructed and solid.
