Description

Edwardian Tea Display Table - Walnut - c1910 This fine walnut Edwardian period fold-out tea display table is a stunning example presented in excellent condition. The table has perfect proportions for presenting morning coffee or afternoon tea and is as versatile as it is gorgeous. The table performs as a lamp, side or occasional table with side flaps down. Each side shelf slides smoothly into place without fuss to produce a really attractive and unusual item of furniture. The table is solid in use, has excellent hinging, and displays lovely colour to the walnut. There is reeded detail throughout and the table benefits from a lower tier to even further add to the adaptability of this Edwardian piece. Overall this piece of furniture offers great scope and is pleasing in size. Lots of fun and in great condition.
