SoldItem Reference: SA158552*Date of manufacture: 1920

Description

This attractive antique mahogany drum table has a original leather top with mahogany crossed banding above three rounded cocked drawers in figured mahogany with brass knob handles and three false drawers for decoration. A solid mahogany turned tripod base with elegant shaped legs ending on spade feet supports the top that revolves in either direction with the drawers inside being oak lined. The Antique drum table is a very useful size and pretty piece of furniture that has been carefully restored by using a traditional French polish method and will happily fit into many places within the home.
