Description

This good quality set of 6 Victorian mahogany dining chairs have a charming solid mahogany bar back with finely carved central rail and have been deep upholstered in a cream linen upholstery with contrast piping and brass stud work. The Victorian chairs stand on two beautifully turned and tapering mahogany front legs with two rear sweeping legs. They are a lovely soft faded mahogany colour with a striking grain and with the upholstery can work in both contemporary and traditional homes. The antique dining chairs have been fully restored using traditional French polishing methods and upholstered so to be ready straight away for home use.
