Description

Superb Glastonbury Chair - English Oak - c1880 This Glastonbury oak chair is a splendid example of quality chair making. The chair is substantial in construction with fine solid English Oak used throughout the piece. The resulting chair is very robust yet maintains the critical balance to the eye and remains a very attractive example of this chair style. This piece benefits from a gorgeous depth of colour to the oak throughout and the chair is presented in exceptional condition. The piece has a Puritan feel as it has survived the years without being the subject of an over zealous carver! Overall an excellent example certain to please. Highly desirable and perfect to add to any collection. This chair will make a lovely addition to any setting and is ready to give centuries of service.
