SoldItem Reference: SA159319*Date of manufacture: 1800

Description

This fine quality Antique Georgian mahogany bureau is dating from around 1800 within the reign of George III. Made from a quality mahogany structure this antique bureau has a solid fall front with later inlaid shell writing slope which when opened and resting on it lopers reveals a fitted bank of 6 short and 3 long drawers above a pigeon holed interior. The lower section of the Georgian bureau has four beautifully graduated drawers with decorative brass shaped drop handles, central locks and brass escutcheons. The mahogany bureau which is raised on splay feet has been finely restored using traditional methods and ready to use within the home and is available to view at our showroom 50 Camden Passage, Islington N1.
