Description

Part of a private collection of clocks we have just acquired in it's entirety. This is an outstanding serpentine fronted Vienna wallclock by the World renowned maker GUSTAV BECKER. The walnut case is in lovely original condition with a very rich, deep warm patina and has a book matched, quarter veneered backpanel. The 8 day, weight driven movement has just been fully serviced by our BHI registered staff. It strikes on the half-hour and the hour. The enamelled, two piece dial is free from any cracks, chips or crazing. It has black Roman numerals and a subsidiary seconds dial. The brass weights and pendulum are in excellent order. It is complete with it's original winding key.
