SoldItem Reference: SA160642*Date of manufacture: 1880

Description

A Rare Piece of Progressive Arts and Crafts Furniture. This Large Sideboard has a remarkable and stylish design, typical of the late Victorian era associated with the Arts and Crafts movement. It is inspired in every detail from Copper and Brass handles to the stylised tree design of the fretwork decoration on the back. The Dresser has three very large cupboards and 2 large drawers, and it one of the heaviest pieces I have ever encountered. It is very sound there are a few small chips to the chunky feet, and some of the pierced decoration on the back is slightly damaged, I can have this restored should you wish but I have left it in the authentic condition in which it was found. The Sideboard is 82" long, 33" deep and 52" high, the counter top is 40" from the floor, the drawers and the top shelf can be removed for transportation but this piece is large and very heavy and the driver will require a great deal of help to move it, the largest piece is 72" long, 28" deep and 50" high DELIVERY OF THIS PIECE TO ALL OF MAINLAND ENGLAND AND WALES IS INCLUDED IN THE PRICE Delivery times vary from 7 to 28 days.
