Description

A pair of elbow chairs with well carved top rails, scroll arms and sabre legs. Both chairs are in good sound condition and they have drop-in seats which have been re-upholstered. The chair on the right is in perfect original condition. The chair on the left has had restoration to the top rail on the left (see last photo). This chair has also had a new front leg at some stage in its life. This has been well done by an experienced cabinet maker but he has used later mahogany.
