Description

This is the perfect tea caddy for somebody that is passionate about timbers. This is made from a solid piece of Amboyna, the most expensive timber in the world, with its exceptional graining and rich toffee colouring. The natural unfinished timber can be seen from the underside. A delightful shape is decorated with some Ebony linear inlay and an escutcheon to the front housing the working key. The interior is a joy with the original velvet lining the inside of the lid. There are the two compartments each with a lid (some age bowing or warping to lids, insignificant but mentioned for accuracy). Dating to the Regency period, around 1820, this unusual box remains in excellent condition. 11" x 8" x 5 1/2" Item ID: 34078 FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail Directly From London, England
