Description

A tall spelter lamp of a man in Grecian robes with his arm up (holding a new electrical fitting). This is an original period spelter figure, on the original wooden base and has been rewired to UK specifications. The base is showing some scuff marks and could be polished or painted, but we prefer to leave it as is. It measures 22" (55cm) from the base of the electrical fitting to the bottom of the lamp.

Internal Ref: 0412
