Ironstone Meat Plate

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA162495*Date of manufacture: 1800

Description

A Large Early 19th Century Ironstone Meat Plate, the octagonal rim decorated with lattice, diamond and flower border, and the inner edge of the rim with a band of rocks interspersed with petal head and leaf reserves. The centre of the plate well decorated with pagodas, houses and temples set amongst trees on a lakeside, with 8 fishing and sailing boats on the lake, with mountains and trees in the background. The rear of the plate finished with comb back. Has a rather naive and appealing form of decoration, very much of the European trying to copy the Orient and with a good deep, gutsy colour. c 1830 Height 2 1/4" Depth 16 3/4"
