* FREE DELIVERY TO MOST OF THE U.K. * Brass Table - Folding Base - c1920 This brass table is presented in excellent antique order. The table top is a deep-sided example over a wooden inner frame and therefore has a feeling of solidity and robustness. This rides over a quad-form base which will fold flat when required to allow the whole table to be stored under a sofa or into a cupboard. The table measures 60cm (23.6") across and will make a splendid lamp, side, or occasional table. The base of the table displays pleasing barley twist stems and is robustly designed so that the table is stable and perfect for permanent location if required.
