Item Reference: SA164271

Date of manufacture: 1870

Description

A rare collector's item from the Victorian era. A superb hallmarked silver napkin ring, with detailed engraved patterns of flowers, leaves and intricate borders. It has a most interesting and intriguing inscription, which reads as follows :- "Souvenir from RLY EMN Jubilee May 6th 1892" I can find no reference to what 'jubilee' this refers to and wonder if it will remain an interesting and elusive message. Condition :- Excellent, with no dents or splits. Hallmarks :- Clear and readable. Maker :- Thomas Smily. Diameter :- 4.5 cms. Width :- 3.5 cms.
