Description

A stunning antique English cruet set dating to the Victorian era, around 1870 / 1880. The stand sits of four highly decorative feet supporting the oval shaped caddy, beautifully engraved back and front each with a vacant cartouche. The hand-blown glass bottles have been shaped and polished into a fluted pattern, all with polished pontil marks to the underside. There are two larger pepper pots, a Cayenne pepper bottle with spoon, a vinegar bottle and mustard pot with spoon. Each of the silver plated tops is marked "Patent 805". There are literally a couple of minuscule fleabites to the glass, insignificant and mentioned purely for accuracy. A really grand and special set in superb condition; the complete piece measuring 8" x 6 3/4" x 12" tall to top of handle.
