Description

About as good as they get, this magnificent hand or dressing table mirror is a real gem. Made from sterling silver, the side is where the English hallmark can be found for London 1922 together with the silversmith's initials F & Co Ld. The mirror is outlined with a beautiful raised border in the form of a continuous Acanthus Leaf garland. The back of the mirror is inset with a fabulous piece of period Tortoiseshell with stunning markings and colours ranging from golden Champagne to rich Chocolate brown, showcased by it's glossy patina. The inlay is simply exquisite, an engraved silver hanging basket tied with a ribbon and bow. The basket is overflowing with leaves and flowers and leaves, all made from tiny pieces of Mother of Pearl attached to stems made from a twisted wire inlay made from gold. The mirror itself is also in splendid undamaged shape, the glass is original with bevelling. Excellent condition, measuring 9 1/2" long and the glass itself having a diameter measuring 4 3/4".
