Description

Small Mirrored Corner Display Cabinet - Edwardian - c1910 This mirror door compact mahogany corner cabinet is an excellent example and perfect for a range of uses. A quality piece of good proportion it is presented in good condition throughout and benefits from an attractive bevel edge to the mirror. With feature turned columns and cap finials combined with the pierced frame the style is very appealing. Further interest is added with the option to use the upper surface for display items. The door opens to reveal a finished interior. Overall a pleasing example of an Edwardian English mahogany corner display cabinet.
