Description

A wonderful piece of Art nouveau design, this is a silver gilt American Sterling sifter spoon. The finial is an intricately worked arum lily, surrounded by leaves. The shank is stem-like and separates at the base into further leaves, supporting the bowl. The bowl is fully gilded with textured gilt and has piercing which echoes the Lily design. A truly amazing example of Art Nouveau motifs. Condition :- Excellent, with no dents, breaks or splits. Hallmarks :- Sterling is the only mark. Length :- 23 cms. Bowl width :- 8 cms.
