Description

An exquisite Victorian glass cologne bottle, with superb 'rock crystal' cutting to the body and the stopper. The neck has a silver plated collar. The body and stopper are superbly cut with fruit, flowers and foliage and the sides are dimpled. The stopper has an air bubble blown in the centre and the base has a polished pontil. A rare collector's piece. Condition :- Very good with no chips or cracks. There is a very small amount of bloom to the base of the bottle and the silver plated collar has pitting, commensurate with age and use. Height :- 16 cms. Diameter :- 8 cms.
