Description

A very elegant pair of silver plated sauce boats, as usable today as 120 years ago, around 1900 when these would have been made, late Victorian in era. Each stands on three elegant hoof-like feet and has a sturdy scroll handle; these are a great weight, nice and solid. Each a good size too, the rim measuring 6 5/8" to spout x 4" wide; 8" long inclusive of handle; 4" tall to top of handle. The underside has the crossed arrows mark for top-notch and highly sought after William Hutton & Sons of Sheffield. Superb pair, ready to grace the finest of tables. Item ID: 34214
