Description

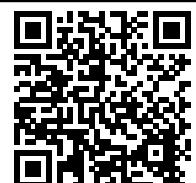

A most unusual Victorian tea set of Octagonal form with exquisite chased decoration including a grand foliate top to the handle and panels including a China Man's face. There is a mounted face to the teapot and creamer, the face on the teapot joining the spout which has a bird's head spout .. top notch, and full of detail. The underside of all pieces have lovely sets of marks for the silversmith, George Richmond Collis of Birmingham, this set made at the Church Street location, dating this set to between 1848-1868. Excellent condition with lavish gilding on the inside of the sugar and creamer. The set benefits from having a very grand Armorial Crest of a crowned Lion. The teapot measuring 10 1/2" spout to handle. 6 1/4" across the widest part of the pot and 6" tall to top of finial. The creamer measures 5 1/2" from spout to handle, 4 1/2" cross the widest point of the creamer and 4 3/4" tall to top of handle.
