Description

Superb Large Rococo Table Clock ~ French - Circa 1870 ~~~ Excellent condition ~~ This is a simply stunning antique Louis XV style table clock dating from around 1870. The case is finely modelled in brass with elaborate and bold C scrolls, fretted panels lined with velvet and a large naturalistically modelled base. The top of the clock is surmounted by a cherub holding a horn. The large dial is mounted with 12 individual cartouches on a heavy brass plate and is complete with the original blued steel hands. The French movement is of high quality. It is a large plate movement with rack striking and pin-pallet escapement. It runs for 8 days and strikes half hourly on a bell and is complete with an old replacement pendulum. It has been fully overhauled by our clock maker and is in excellent working order. See our website for a video clip of the clock running and striking. Condition of the case is excellent with no losses and the clock has a lovely clean and bright finish. The dial is also in excellent condition with no significant chips or scratches to the cartouches. Complete with pendulum, bell and a suitable key. Full setting up instructions supplied.
