Description

Japy Freres - Large and Superb Cartel Clock ~ French - Circa 1890 ~ ~ Excellent condition ~ ~ A Beautiful and Majestic Japy Freres antique cartel wall clock in stunning condition. The clock is finely and heavily made from brass. The movement is mounted in an ornate drum which is suspended from an ornate bracket. To each side of the dial are dragons which are particularly nicely modelled. The dial itself is heavy brass with blind fretwork, mounted with 12 individual enamel cartouches. This is covered by thick, convex and bevelled glass. Japy Freres movement is of the usual high quality expected of this maker and has the Japy Freres mark on the back plate. It runs for 8 days and strikes half hourly on a bell. It has been fully overhauled by our clock maker and is now in excellent fully working order. Click the movie below to hear the bell and watch the clock running! Condition of the case is excellent with a good bright and clean finish. The dial is also in excellent condition with no significant damage to the enamel cartouches. Complete with pendulum, bell and a suitable key. Full setting up instructions supplied if required. A stunning Japy Freres clock set t...
