Description

Stunning Foldover Table - English Regency - c1820 This Regency period table is presented in superb order and is a very pleasing example of a fold-over design dating c1820. The piece will make a fine hallway, study or sofa table and converts to a lovely four seat table making it wonderful for games, tea or intimate dining. The table rides upon classic taper turned legs which rise into an inlaid block. Quality veneer to the front edge and a centre panel with cross-banding match with the high craftsmanship shown throughout the piece. An X-configuration to the rear legs is displayed when the table is in full size mode providing a sturdy support for the whole. The table is presented in excellent order. The upper surfaces are in stunning condition and the piece presents wonderfully throughout. The exceptional proportions and rich colour of this piece ensure that it will suit any location.
