Description

Oak Hall Table - Superb Condition - c1870 This Victorian English Oak table is a lovely size and presented in excellent condition. In wonderful order with deep colour the table is solid throughout and free of defects and wood worm. A carved top with gorgeous hand carved floral repeat borders a plain cartouche. The rectangle form of the top is classically enhanced with clipped corners and offers a double layer of edge detail. Riding over angled bobbin turned legs, which are united by a bobbin turned X-stretcher centred with a large feature bobbin, provides very good stability for the whole. Overall this piece of furniture is in very good condition and the pleasing proportions make the table suitable for a variety of locations. It will look wonderful as a hall piece, lamp stand, side or display table, and has the character and quality to work with any decor. The dark oak displays very well and the whole piece is a pleasing example.
